Education Support

▲ Bus offer ceremony

A school bus arrived at Yamada on 23 April, in time for the opening ceremony on the 25th. We prepared 6 buses for children living in evacuation centers. Moreover, we conducted educational support such as distributing school uniforms, maintenance of staff rooms and so on.

◆ Yamada, Iwate Prefecture

We offered 19 kinds of school supplies such as notebooks and pencils to 1,764 pupils in 11 elementary schools in Kesenuma for their opening ceremony in cooperation with prefectural and municipal educational committees.

◆ Kesenuma, Miyagi Prefecture

Volunteer Coordination

Various volunteers of students, businesspersons, foreigners and so on has been kindly exerting their power.

We put importance on volunteer coordination, recruiting and dispatching businessperson volunteers in order for them to help manage projects on emergency assistance as well as student volunteers for them to help clean up affected schools and houses and remove debris.

We dispatched the first volunteer group consisting of refugees on 28 April. We matched the needs of affected areas with the refugees' will to support victims and to make a contribution to Japanese society. The group were composed of 23 members including refugees from Burma, Uganda and Middle East, and foreign students. We had sent volunteer groups three times by 5 May. About 70 members have already joined the project.

Non-Food Items

We select and distribute items necessary for life in temporary houses, which is different from what were required to live in evacuation centres.

▲ Staff and volunteers carrying items

▲ We deliver items suitable for each family.

We sent daily commodities to 188 people (71 families) who started living in temporary houses in Chinomori, Ofunato, Iwate Prefecture. The goods are collected in cooperation with AEON Co.,Ltd. and selected according to the victims' gender and number of people in each family.

On 30 April, with the help of 9 volunteers dispatched from Iwate Volunteer Centre, we delivered the commodities to temporary houses in the rain.

◆ Ofunato, Iwate Prefecture

▲ Goods checked and submitted to victims

We distributed items to 66 shelters in Miyagi Prefecture during the Golden Week.

Not only that, we also remove debris and mud with volunteers.

◆ Minami-sanriku, Miyagi Prefecture
